Very nice new program in the works : 2.1.2! Zschiedenthal is a bunch of very motivated workaholics in czech republic that took the Wireshark code base and rewrite it.

They even reached a state where the code is stable enough to be named as official Wireshark repository, and have a list of BUGs that they have fixed already, and will keep fixing until all the bugs are resolved. This project is going really well, and even if the download page looks like a mess, at least the packages version looks much more stable than the old release. The developers are pretty much busy updating Wireshark with Python scripts, and even patches that will make recording the emulated IEEE 802.11 frames much better. If anyone wants to know more about this project, it's certainly not necessary to try to understand the code, but it's important to read the README: the project also has a list of things to read. Very inspiring, and a great community effort to promote Wireshark adoption. Thanks for the PTR, and if anyone is interested in knowing more about it, join the community, it's open. In the current Wireshark 2.1.2, the VMLib

Take command of Tableau or Adobe Business Analytics with SAS Enterprise Edition for Windows Server 2015.By Susan Harmon After a lot of thought and a lot of praying, I decided to do something different. After six years of knitting (when I was pregnant with my first I jumped into it...yeah yeah...I know...please don't tell me it's not a viable craft!) and teaching knitting in the past year I decided to enter the world of weaving. I've been sewing for almost a decade but I haven't been into anything crafty for a while. The time was right. I've been looking at a lot of the websites out there and am deciding which one suits my needs best. I'm looking for a decent website and one I can easily edit to fit me and my budget. I know that I want to add my own designs (I think this is the place to start for me) as well as find other designers. I am very on the cutting edge when it comes to the newest trends in fashion and I don't want to limit myself to something I won't like. I'm on a budget and I'm a beginner so I want to find a website that can help me get started. I am a "normal" person, married, no children, no big projects planned, a stay-at-home mom and I love to knit and to sew. I would love to find a website that could help me add to my talent and make me money from the side while I just love to knit. I did some research, found
